Press Note.

On the 5th September 1952, Government passed orders that they would be taking over the monopoly of running buses on six specified routes, and prohibiting private bus-owners from plying their buses on the abovementioned routes with effect from the 1st October 1952.

Several leading bus owners have since approached the Government with a request to postpone giving effect to the said Government Order till the 1st January 1953, mainly on the ground that about 300 private buses would be
